Natural Selections Premium Flower is grown with care in a state of the art cultivation. Their team brings over 40 years of combined horticulture and cannabis experience with a focus on carefully monitoring and controlling the cultivation environment to allow them to produce the highest quality flower on the market. Cutting-edge methods produce a variety of colorful and aromatic cannabis strains. After harvest, all product is slowly dried at low temperatures to best preserve cannabinoids and terpenes, and every flower is hand trimmed and inspected prior to packaging.
