This is a Must for my home medical kit!

By Elisa P on November 30, 2015

I have been purchasing Dr. Clark's Lugol Iodine for some time and am so grateful it is now available at Amazon! Wonderful product and inexpensive for its many uses. Can quickly boost your immune system. Soak a Q-Tip and coat your inner nose if you have sinus or upper respiratory issues...frequently. Do the patch test recommended by my doctor....coat a 4x4 inch area on thigh or stomach and check it after 24 hours...if it has disappeared, apply again, check again in 24 hours and keep this up until you can see the iodine on the skin after a 24 hour

Can arrive leaking!!!!

By beccareviews on January 14, 2018

The product arrived leaking, this was an urgent shipment to my daughter who is heading out on international travel tomorrow, and I really needed this to arrive intact. I am so disappointed it is leaking she did not even take it out of the bubble wrap and got the solution all over her hands. I had to ship it to her in her city of departure now there is no way to get a return done. I am sorely disappointed that either the cap was not on tight enough or the bottle arrived broken. Now she will not have this important supplement to fight viruses and other junk.

This product is wonderful for stomach upset and pain particularly caused from food

By Sunshine on May 17, 2017

Verified Purchase

This product is wonderful for stomach upset and pain particularly caused from food. I use 8 to 10 drops in 1/2 glass of water and it really works. Within 1/2 hour my stomach was at ease. I also use this to wash all my vegetables before eating them.

My wife and I take a few drops (usually in water) every day or two to make sure we are not iodine deficient.

Lugol's iodine is such a wonderful product and can be used to detox.

Recently read article claiming most people in this country are iodine deficient. So me and my wife take a few drops (usually in water) every day to make sure we stay sufficient.

I hear iodine can be used to detox the body of several different harmful pollutants.

What a dynamic product.

Saves my stomach every time

Anytime I have a slight stomach ache (rare) I take a couple drops of this in water or juice and 15 min later or so I'm all better. Definitely a keeper for the medicine cabinet! Bye bye toxic stomach pills and liquids, iodine is the way to go (unless you're allergic).

I used it occasionally to replenish iodine, by rubbing it onto my forehead. So far haven't notice any change but it does absorb in few hours
